

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Settlement Agreement (hereinafter “Settlement Agreement”) and the related document entitled Confidential Addendum to Settlement Agreement (collectively referred to herein as the “Full Agreement”) are entered into as of the Effective Date, as defined below in Section 1.6, by and between the following parties: American Council of the Blind (“ACB”), American Foundation for the Blind (“AFB”), and Lela Behee (collectively, the “Claimants”), and Dollar General Corporation (“Dollar General”). Claimants and Dollar General are at times referred to collectively herein as the “Parties.”

RECITALS

The Full Agreement is based on the following facts:

- A. ACB, a non-profit corporation that provides advocacy services in the United States on behalf of individuals who are blind or have visual impairments, is dedicated to promoting the full integration of persons who are blind or have visual impairments into all aspects of society, and provides information to the general public about the accomplishments, needs and contributions of persons who are blind or visually-impaired. Among ACB’s board, staff and members, and those on whose behalf they advocate and provide services, are many individuals with vision disabilities within the meaning of state and federal law who have shopped and continue to shop at Dollar General Stores throughout the United States. ACB is incorporated and has its principle place of business in Washington, D.C., and has a state affiliate in every state in the U.S.
- B. AFB is a national non-profit whose mission is to eliminate the inequities faced by the more than ten million blind and visually impaired persons in the United States. Among other things, AFB is: the leading publisher of professional materials on blindness and low vision through its publishing arm, AFB Press; a pioneer in the development of Talking Books; a national advocate representing the interests of blind or visually impaired people before Congress and government agencies; and home to the Helen Keller Archives. Among AFB’s board, staff and those on whose behalf it advocates and provides services, are many individuals with vision disabilities within the meaning of state and federal law and who have shopped and continue to shop at Dollar General Stores throughout the United States. AFB is incorporated and has its principle place of business in New York State, and has offices in states where Dollar General does business, including Texas and West Virginia.
- C. Claimant Lela Behee is a resident of Colorado City, Texas, is blind, and is a person with a disability within the meaning of the Americans with Disabilities Act and the laws of the State of Texas. Claimant Behee has shopped at Dollar General, including the Dollar General Store in Colorado City, Texas.
- D. Dollar General, through its subsidiaries and related companies, operates retail stores in Texas and other states across the United States, including stores operating under the name “Dollar General” and “Dollar General Market” (collectively, “Dollar General Stores”).

- E. Claimants contend that they, the respective boards, staff, members and clients of ACB and AFB, and other blind and visually-impaired persons, have been, are being, and continue to be denied full access to the services provided by retail establishments and are therefore being discriminated against due to alleged inaccessibility of certain Point of Sale (POS) Devices (defined in Section 1.12 below) found in Dollar General Stores (the “Claim(s)”). Dollar General denies that it discriminates against blind and visually-impaired persons, including Claimants and the respective boards, staff, members and clients of ACB and AFB, in any way and specifically denies that it discriminates against such blind and visually-impaired persons due to alleged inaccessibility of certain POS Devices in Dollar General Stores.

- F. The Parties enter into the Full Agreement in order to resolve the Claims and to avoid the burden, expense, and risk of potential litigation. In entering into the Full Agreement, Dollar General does not admit, and specifically denies, that it has violated or failed to comply with any provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U.S.C. § 12101, et seq., and the Title III implementing regulations, 28 C.F.R., Part 36, and any applicable laws of any state relating to accessibility for persons with disabilities to public accommodations, any regulations or guidelines promulgated pursuant to those statutes, or any other applicable laws, regulations, or legal requirements. Neither the Full Agreement, nor any of its terms or provisions, nor any of the negotiations connected with it, shall be construed as an admission or concession by Dollar General of any such violation or failure to comply with any applicable law. Neither the Full Agreement nor any of its terms and provisions shall be offered or received as evidence for any purpose whatsoever against Dollar General in any action or proceeding, other than a proceeding to enforce the terms of the Full Agreement.
